Discipline and Guidance Policy

Discipline must be:

1. Individualized and consistent for each child
2. Appropriate to the child's level of understanding
3. Directed toward teaching the child acceptable behavior and self-control

A caregiver may only use positive methods of discipline and guidance that encourage self-esteem, self-control, and self-direction, which include at least the following:

1. Using praise and encouragement of good behavior instead of focusing only upon unacceptable behavior
2. Reminding the child of behavior expectations daily by using clear, positive statements
3. Redirecting behavior using positive statements
4. Using brief supervised separation or time out from the group, when appropriate for the child's age and development, which is limited to no more than one minute per year of the child's age
5. If the measures mentioned above are unsuccessful, the child may be taken to management to help redirect the issue.
6. If the above measures are unsuccessful, a parent/teacher conference will be called.
7. Children can be prohibited to participate in special activities including field trips for discipline.
8. If all measures are unsuccessful, the child may be dismissed from the center for violent behavior, or misbehavior.

There must be no harsh, cruel, or unusual treatment of any child. The following types of discipline and guidance are prohibited:

1. Corporal punishment or threats of corporal punishment
2. Punishment associated with food, beverages, naps, or toilet training
3. Pinching, slapping, spanking, shaking, or biting a child
4. Hitting a child with a hand or instrument
5. Putting anything in or on a child's mouth
6. Humiliating, ridiculing, rejecting, or yelling at a child
7. Subjecting a child to harsh, offensive, abusive, profane language, telling a child to "shut up", or making derogatory remarks about children or family members of children in the presence of children
8. Threatening of a prohibited action even if there is no intent to follow through with the threat
9. Being disciplined by another child, or being bullied by another child
10. Requiring a child to exercise or placing a child in an uncomfortable position or in extreme temperatures
11. Placing a child in a locked or dark room, bathroom, or closet with the door closed
12. Requiring a child to remain silent or inactive for inappropriately long periods of time for the child's age
13. Being restrained by devices such as highchairs or feeding tables for disciplinary purposes
14. Having active play time withheld for disciplinary purposes, except time out may be used during active play time for an infraction incurred during the playtime
 - Time out shall not be used for children under the age of 2.
 - A time out shall take place within sight of staff.
 - The length of each time out shall be based on the age of the child and shall not exceed 1 minute per year of age.
 - For children over the age of 6, a time out may be extended beyond 1 minute per year of age, if a signed and dated statement, including maximum time limit, from the parent granting permission, is on file at the center.

Agreement & Contract

I have been given a copy of the ECC Parent Handbook and have read the information given to me by Eastwood Childcare Center. This agreement is a contract binding both the center and the parent and is subject to revision with a two-week notice to parents. The following items are a reminder of what was mentioned in our contract that you agree to as a parent or guardian.

A two-week notice is required when removing your child from our center. Please submit this in writing to the childcare office.

A child with a fever of 100.4 degrees or higher will not be allowed to stay at the center and must remain fever free for at least 24 hours without fever reducing medication in order to return. If the child is sent home due to fever, the child may not return the next day.

If your child receives immunization from the doctor during the day, your child may not return until the following day in order for parents to monitor for reactions.

A one-week notice is required to use a vacation week. This should be submitted, in writing, to the office. All accounts must have a zero balance, in order to receive this week of vacation.

Failure to keep your tuition paid up to date could result in your dismissal from our childcare center.

Any child can be dismissed by the ECC director and/or Eastwood Daycare Team at any time.

Participation in slander or negative representation of ECC or EBC on any social media platform may result in immediate dismissal from the center.

I agree to adhere to all policies, procedures, and guidelines stated in the ECC parent handbook.
